

Marital Role: Hotwife

A hotwife is a married woman who is encouraged and supported by her husband in the exploration and enjoyment of extramarital, sexual relationships.

In marriages where the husband takes on a more supportive role as the lover assumes the sexual role, the husband is considered a “cuckold” in contemporary usage.

Historically, a cuckold was a man unaware of his wife’s extramarital relationship(s), but this term now represents the loving husband supportive of her sexual needs and pleasures enjoyed with others.

Is it a fit for me?

Answer yes to more than one question to qualify.

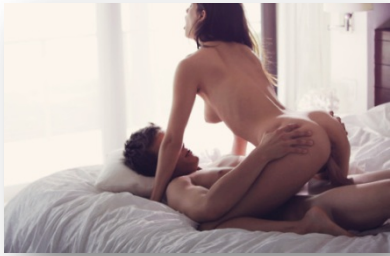

- Have you been together more than 5 years?
- Has your sexual fulfillment been less than stellar?
- Do you enjoy a non-leadership role sexually?
- Does your husband prefer a non-leadership role sexually?
- Would you enjoy a lover with a longer, thicker cock and increased stamina?
- Has your husband shared such fantasies with you?

What you need to know:

If sharing you with another man has already become a topic between you and your husband, rest assured of the following: 1) this isn't a test of your fidelity 2) he's not interested in having the same sexual freedom 3) the fact that you can talk about it together is proof of having already established and fostered a loving, communicating marriage.

Tending The Marital Garden

Consider the analogy of marriage being a garden both spouses tend together. Within this garden are many blossoms representing the aspects of your lives, which bind you as a couple. These blossoms are children, friends, family, hobbies, and finances among others. For many couples, there can be one blossom they cannot make thrive like the rest. The reasons are varied, but the result is the same: compromise. You both accept that this flower will never blossom like the rest. This stunted flower is your sexual satisfaction. You are emotionally intimate yet both recognize, perhaps silently, that something is missing.

“How does being a hotwife solve this?”

It's about roles: husband & lover.

Is your husband like the guys you dated when you were in your late teens/early twenties? Probably not. Those were the males who made you blush; males who caused your nipples to stiffen involuntarily and an ache to grow between your thighs. They were males you reacted to on an instinctive level and the sex was great – but they weren't much for relationships or being part of your life, were they?

Just as great lovers are usually the worst boyfriend (let alone husband), the best husbands are rarely the best lovers.

Even when your husband is an effective lover, he may feel you still deserve to experience better.

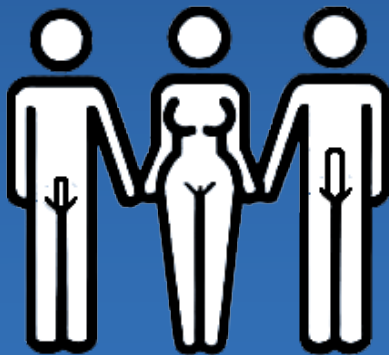

As a hotwife you can still enjoy all the benefits of marriage while enjoying the erotic benefits of being sexually single.

“Isn't that risky?”

There are many ways to mitigate such risks including practicing safe sex, and establishing a long-term relationship vs. simply dating random men.

“Does my husband really want this?”

He gave you this, didn't he? If you're in doubt – check his penis, it can't lie!

The main content area features a large image of a woman lying on a bed with a text overlay: "Introduction To Cuckolding" and "Inviting another man into your marriage and inside your wife can be the best thing to ever happen for you both." Below this is a sub-section titled "Cuckolding Is An Expression Of Love" with an image of a couple and text explaining that cuckolding is often seen from the outside as a casual sex opportunity, but couples need to explore the mental and emotional aspects of enabling other males to have a sexual role in the marriage. A list of bullet points follows: "Wives become hotwives and are empowered to embrace life as a more sexual being", "Husbands embrace their submissive, supportive role, improving marital ties", and "Wives commit themselves sexually to superior lovers, with their husband's support". A blue box at the bottom of the article states: "When practiced properly, cuckolding will bring a couple closer together & greatly increase intimacy despite of and also because of the intimacy the wife now shares with her lover." On the right side, there is a "Members Chatting" section, a "Shop For Gear" section with a link to "Stockroom.com", and a "Member Menu" with "Log in" and "Register" options. A small news item at the bottom right mentions "New Bull lined up for Marie" dated 29 September 2011.
